DESCRIPTION & SITUATION

Set within an attractive terrace of period homes, this beautifully presented Victorian townhouse combines timeless architectural character with warm, thoughtfully curated interiors arranged across multiple floors. The property offers wonderfully balanced accommodation filled with natural light, retaining an abundance of original charm including high ceilings, decorative mouldings, fireplaces and elegant proportions throughout. Carefully maintained and sensitively updated, the house blends classic features with a relaxed contemporary feel ideally suited to modern family living.

The ground floor provides inviting reception space with soft neutral tones and attractive outlooks, alongside a stylish kitchen and dining area opening onto the exceptional rear garden. The garden itself is a particular highlight mature planting, brick terraces and elevated seating areas create a peaceful and highly private outdoor retreat.

Upstairs, the bedrooms are beautifully presented, each enjoying an individual character and excellent natural light. The principal rooms feel calm and spacious, while the upper floors offer flexible accommodation ideal for guests, family life or home working. Throughout the property there is a strong sense of warmth and individuality, with carefully considered interiors complementing the original Victorian architecture. Situated within a highly regarded residential setting, the house enjoys convenient access to local amenities, excellent schools, green spaces and transport connections, making it ideally positioned for both city access and day-to-day living.
