For Sale By Private Treaty

A most charming 1930s residence, ideally positioned on Lower Churchtown Road, offering elegant proportions and a wealth of original period detail throughout. This delightful home has been lovingly maintained, retaining its inherent character boasting hallmarks of the era including high ceilings, picture rails, and original fireplaces.

Well-balanced accommodation the property comprises a welcoming entrance hall, interconnecting living and dining rooms and a kitchen to the rear overlooking the garden. To the front, the original garage has been partially converted to incorporate a convenient shower room while useful storage space has been retained to the rear. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. A staircase leads to the attic level, providing additional storage and further potential.

A standout feature of this home is the exceptional rear garden. Extending to approximately 21.8 metres (c. 70 ft) in length and enjoying a desirable south-westerly aspect, it offers a high degree of privacy and a wonderful sense of seclusion. Beautifully planted with a rich variety of mature trees and shrubs it is a gardener's haven. The generous size also provides excellent scope to extend (sub to pp)

Lower Churchtown Road is a highly convenient and well-established residential address, offering an excellent balance of suburban tranquillity and city accessibility. A short stroll leads to Rathgar or Churchtown with an excellent selection of cafés, shops, and everyday amenities, while Dundrum Town Centre provides an extensive range of retail, dining, and leisure options. Transport links are superb with the Luas Green Line on the doorstep at Windy Arbour offering swift access to the city centre, complemented by regular Dublin Bus services and easy access to the M50. The area is also renowned for its excellent choice of schools, including De La Salle College Churchtown, The High School Rathgar and Alexandra College.
