For Sale By Private Treaty

View to appreciate this attractive five-bedroom detached residence of 165 sq. m. approx. Built in 1979, this smart, double fronted home has a terrific balance of both living and bedroom accommodation - perfect for modern day families changing needs. No 14 offers great flexibility in terms of the internal configuration with two reception rooms and an open plan kitchen/dining which extends the full width of the house. If required there is potential to extend into the generous rear garden. (Subject to P.P.)

This family home has been tastefully updated over the years with modern day kitchen and bathroom facilities and has a stylish contemporary interior. It enjoys an unparalleled sense of seclusion both inside and outside with generous front and rear gardens and is one of just seventeen detached houses well positioned towards the end of this mature tree lined cul de sac, just off the Lower Churchtown Road. This undoubtedly could be the forever family home.

There is an enviable range of amenities immediately at hand with excellent local shopping at Churchtown, with the property also being just minutes from Dundrum Town Centre, and close to Rathgar, Terenure, Milltown and Rathfarnham. The by-pass roads make the M50 highly accessible, while a leisurely short walk down to the nearby LUAS makes light work of the short commute to the city centre and beyond. There is a selection of cross city bus routes which include the 161, 14 & the S6. Leisure facilities abound with the Overend Airfield Estate, the parklands of Orwell, Dartry and Bushy at hand, not forgetting two of Dublin's most prestigious golf clubs - Milltown and The Castle. There is a comprehensive selection of well-established schools nearby, and UCD Belfield is only a short cycle away.
