Redhill Town is located in Surrey midway between London and Brighton, and within reach of Gatwick Airport. Well known and extremely popular with local commuters because of its main line train station. Trains go from Redhill to London Victoria, Gatwick and The South Coast.

The Town Centre itself, offers a vast range of high street stores, including sports shops, barbers, hairdressers, and supermarkets, such as Sainsburys and Marks and Spencer's. Twice a week, there is also an open-air market on the pedestrianised high street. Redhill is home to The Belfry Shopping Mall which hosts several stores; including Marks and Spencer's, New Look, Boots, H&M and Waterstones. At the northern end of town, you can find the Harlequin theatre/cinema and Library, which add to the entertainment and leisure as well as café's, restaurants and public houses within the local area.

Redhill also boasts a number of highly regarded schools, state and independent, for all ages. These include The Royal Albert and Alexander School, Warwick School and for high education East Surrey College.
