GUIDE PRICE £525,000 - £550,000

This attractive home represents a rare opportunity to secure a detached bungalow in a sought-after location that is offered to market CHAIN FREE. Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac, this bungalow is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice, offering the perfect blend of comfort and convenience.

The accommodation consists of an entrance hall with storage and loft access. To the front is the kitchen/diner and living room, both of which feature leaded glass windows. The kitchen is equipped with wooden cabinetry, decorative splashback tiling and a larder. The elegant living room benefits from fitted storage units and enjoys a vista of the front garden.

Towards the rear are two double bedrooms with the principal bedroom completed with integrated wardrobes. The third bedroom is a single that is being used as a study and leads directly into the conservatory that provides internal access to the garage and external access via French Doors to the garden. The layout is completed by a contemporary bathroom that includes a large quadrant shower, floor to ceiling tiling and under sink storage.

Externally, the property includes a private driveway to the front and a tandem length garage with an electric up and over door. There is a small garden that backs onto Cophorne Golf Club with mature planting and an area laid to lawn and access to a secluded patio area and twin sheds.

Location is always key, and it is no exception here as the property is situated in a peaceful and sought after residential neighbourhood. It is close to the village centre, which offers residents a range of amenities, and nearby the local towns of Horley and Crawley that offer excellent transport links.
