In need of modernisation throughout and offered to the market with no onward chain complications, this three-bedroom end-terrace home is situated in a popular residential area. The A4 Bath Road, linking Reading town centre and Junction 12 of the M4 motorway (each approximately three miles away), is just a minute's drive. The Meadway precinct — offering a supermarket, 24-hour gym, and various convenience stores — along with Prospect Park, reputable schools, and frequent bus services are all within a few minutes' walk.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, a dual-aspect living room with UPVC doors leading to the fully enclosed rear garden, a kitchen with ample storage cupboards and generous work surface space, plus a useful understairs cupboard. There is also a storage area providing internal access to the garage. On the first floor, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms served by a shower room. Further benefits include gas radiator central heating and UPVC double glazing.

Externally, the property offers a landscaped rear garden, mainly laid to lawn and fully enclosed. To the front, there is driveway parking and access to a garage with light, power, and double doors.
