Situated in a sought after cul-de-sac just off Long Lane, this well presented and extended three bedroom semi-detached home offers spacious and versatile living in a desirable location on the western fringes of Tilehurst. It borders the picturesque areas of Purley on Thames and Sulham, with miles of open countryside on the doorstep, this property combines the benefits of a peaceful setting with excellent connectivity. Reputable schools are within easy reach along with a local sports club with top tier recreational facilities, regular bus services, and Tilehurst railway station, providing direct links to Paddington and central London. The charming village of Pangbourne, known for its range of local amenities, is also close by.

Internally, the accommodation is both generous and flexible, comprising an entrance porch and hallway, a well appointed kitchen, a dining room, a comfortable living room, and an extended family room, with the added option of a ground floor study or fourth bedroom. Upstairs, a spacious landing gives access to three good sized double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and an additional separate WC. The home benefits from gas radiator central heating and UPVC double glazing throughout.

Outside, the rear garden is fully enclosed, southerly facing, and well established, providing a private and sunny retreat with side access. To the front, there is ample driveway parking for three vehicles side-by-side, leading to an integral garage equipped with light and power.

This is a superb family home in a prime location that balances convenience with countryside living.
