29 Churchgate Way is a detached 3 bedroom bungalow which is centrally positioned in the popular West Norfolk village of Terrington St Clement, overlooking the recreation ground. The bungalow is understood to have been originally constructed by a local builder for their own occupation which the current owners subsequently purchased back in the late 1980's. Extending to almost 1,500sq.ft, the accommodation is spacious and well laid out including a dual aspect living room, 24' kitchen/diner with separate utility room and 3 bedrooms all with space afforded for fitted cupboards. Externally, the property is set well enough back from the road and has an excellent frontage with ample vehicular parking and garden area. The rear garden boasts a West facing aspect and is of a manageable size currently being laid to lawn with some borders and maintained conifer hedge. All amenities on offer in Terrington St Clement are within a short walking distance from the property including convenience stores, doctors surgery and chemists along with the local primary & secondary schools. There are good transport links with a bus stop on Churchgate Way providing frequent services into King's Lynn and for those not wanting to drive into town, the West Lynn Ferry service offers a good alternative. The A17 sits at the top of the village providing access into Lincolnshire with the A47 trunk road also nearby connecting Norwich & Peterborough, both around 1 hours drive. 29 Churchgate Way is now offered to the market with No Onward Chain and presents an excellent opportunity to update to a meet new owners specification. Viewing is highly advised.
