Butlers Marston Butlers Marston is a small, picturesque village and civil parish in south-eastern Warwickshire, situated on the River Dene approximately 1.5 miles south-west of the well served village of Kineton. The village has a peaceful rural character and strong community spirit, exemplified by regular events such as the Marston Meet-Up, Safari Super, and the annual village fête.

Nearby Kineton offers day to day requirements including shops, restaurants, pub, doctors surgery, pharmacy, optician, bakery, primary and secondary schools. The surrounding countryside offers delightful walks, cycling, and horse riding.

Jasmine Cottage enjoys a sheltered position in the centre of the village and forms one of several attractive period cottages in a small terrace fronting Bridge Street. Understood to originally date back to the late 19th century, the property has recently undergone considerable updating and improvement works, including the installation of an air source central heating system, replacement Bathroom, redecoration and landscaping of the enclosed pretty cottage garden to the rear.

The Property enjoys an attractive outlook from the principal Bedroom, Sitting Room, Conservatory and garden over the neighbouring fields.
